The ErgoMounts T2 Elite Monitor Ceiling Mount is a premium hospital screen arm incorporating revolutionary design features that allow monitors weighing up to 12.7kg to be safely supported while still providing effortless, finger touch movement and adjustment.

The Elite arm allows a television or monitor to be suspended from the ceiling and pulled out when required. 530mm (21”) of vertical movement via the gas assisted arm combined with the extra horizontal movement provided by the T2 section yield a massive 1066mm (42”) of maximum reach (including monitor). Each EMT2EQ model provides 360° rotation at the ceiling mount, 360° screen swivel and 90° tilt. The T2 Elite Monitor Ceiling Mount is ideal for hospital and dental environments.

All of these medical pendants are manufactured to order at our facility in Medford, USA. This allows us to offer hundreds of customisable options allowing you to design a mount that has been built to meet your exact requirements. Manufactured out of billet aluminium and powder coated in your choice of Medical White, Light Grey or Black this mount can withstand regular cleaning with hospital grade solutions: 10,000 parts bleach per 1,000,000.
